This week's Gospel

This week's Gospel Focus :The Rich Man and Lazarus (Luke 16:19–31)
Jesus tells the story of a rich man who lived in luxury while poor Lazarus suffered outside his gate. When they died, Lazarus was comforted in heaven, and the rich man was left in need. The Gospel reminds us to notice those who are struggling and to show kindness and generosity in our daily lives.

Family Activity

This week, talk together about how your family can respond to people in need. You might:

- Donate food to a local foodbank or City Mission collection.
- Make a "kindness list" of small ways you can help others.
- Say a short prayer each day for people who are hungry or without shelter.

Pray for...

Loving God,
Open our eyes to see those in need.
Help us to be generous and kind,
sharing what we have and showing Your love.
Amen.
