This week's Gospel

This week's Gospel Focus: Road to Emmaus

In this Sunday's Gospel, two disciples are walking to Emmaus, feeling sad and lost after Jesus' death. A stranger joins them on their journey, but they don't recognise Him until they sit down for supper. It is in the breaking of the bread that their eyes are opened and they realise the stranger is Jesus! This story reminds us that Jesus is always walking beside us, even when we don't realise it, and He is always present when we gather to share a meal.

Try this at home: This week, go for a Family Walk together. As you stroll, take turns sharing one thing that made you feel happy or "warm-hearted" today.

When you get home, share a piece of bread or a snack together as a reminder that Jesus is the "silent guest" at every family meal!

Pray for...

Dear Lord,

Thank you for walking beside us every day. Open our eyes to see you in others and our hearts to feel your love. Bless our home and our meals, and help us to recognise you always.

Amen.
